

MINUS T W E N T Y S E V E N

With 1 guitar, 2 voices and the occasional djembe, Minus 27 is known for bringing well known covers and original compositions to life. The acoustic partnership, including guitarist, singer/songwriter Mike Jeffs and djembe player, singer Rik Jordon from Leeds, take influences from a range of music from Counting Crows and Barenaked Ladies to Alter Bridge and Damien Rice - you may even catch the odd Rhianna or Katy Perry cover.

After a busy year of local gigs, private bookings (including their first hen night) and a weekly open mic night, Minus 27 has already clocked up a number of appearances. The summer season kicked off during the Easter and Royal Wedding Bank Holidays with a packed schedule which is yet to let up.

The duo is now looking forward to finishing the season in style as they play their first festivals - Solfest in Cumbria and Bingley Music Live and launch their first EP 'Impact Winter'. The CD will include fan favourite 'Welcome Home' amongst other original tracks and will be distributed free at festivals (available for £2 at all other gigs).
